THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

Gov. Seward was greeted as he came forward with enthusiastic and long continued cheers. He spoke as follows:

Hail to the state of Illinois! whose iron roads form the spinal column of that system of internal continental trade which surpasses all the foreign commerce of the country, and has no parallel or imitation in any other country on the face of the globe. Hail Chicago! the heart which supplies life to this great system of railroads—Chicago, the last and most wonderful of all the marvelous creations of civilization in North America.

Hail to this council chamber of the great republican party! justly adapted by its vastness and its simplicity to its great purposes—the hall where the representatives of freemen passed that creed of republican faith, which carries healing for the relief of a disordered nation. Woe, woe, be to him who shall add to or shall substract one word from that simple, sublime, truthful, beneficent creed.

Hail to the representatives of the republican party, chosen here by the republicans of the United States, and placed upon the platform of that creed. Happy shall be be who shall give them his suffrage. If he be an old man, he shall show the virtue of wisdom acquired by experience; if he be a young man, he shall in all his coming years tell his fellow men with pride, "I too voted for Abraham Lincoln." (Great applause.)

Fellow citizens, that republican creed is nevertheless no partisan creed. It is a national faith, because it is the embodiment of the one life-sustaining, life-expanding idea of the American republic. What is the idea more or less than simply this:—That civilization is to be maintained and carried on upon this continent by federal states, based upon the principles of free soil, free labor, free speech, equal rights and universal suffrage? (Loud applause.)

Fellow citizens, this is now new idea.—This idea had its first utterance, and the boldest and clearest of all utterances it has received, in the very first words which were spoken by this nation when it came before the world, took its place upon the stage of human action, and asserted its independence in the fear of God, and its confidence of the approval of mankind; declaring that henceforth it held those to be its enemies, who should oppose it in war, and those to be its friends who should maintain with them relations of peace. That utterance was expressed in these simple words: "We hold these these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, and have inalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." This great national idea has been working out its fruits ever since. Its work is seen in the perfect acceptance of it by eighteen of the thirty-four states of this Union—or seventeen of the thirty-three, if Kansas is to be considered out. It is asserting itself in the establishment of new states throughout the west, as it has revolutionized all of western and southern Europe. Why is this idea so effective? It is because it is the one chief living, burning, inextinguishable thought of human nature itself, entertained by man in every age and in every clime.

Fellow citizens, this national idea works not unopposed. Every good and virtuous and benevolent principle in nature has its antagonist, and this great national idea works in perpetual opposition—I may be allowed to say in irrepressible conflict, (prolonged applause) with an erroneous, a deceitful, a delusive idea. Do you ask what that delusive idea is? It is the idea that civilization ought and can be effected on this continent, by this form of federal states, based on the principle of slave soil—of African slave labor, of unequal rights and unequal representation, resulting in unequal suffrage.

(Here there was much tumult and confusion, owing to efforts of those beyond the reach of his voice to hear, drowning the speaker's voice.)

Fellow citizens: Can it be that this great creed of ours needs exposition or defence? It seems to me so evidently just and true that it requires no exposition and needs no defence. Certainly in foreign countries it needs none. In Scotland or France or Germany or Russia, on the shores of the Meditterranean, in Europe, or in Asia, or Africa, you will never find one human being who denies the truth and the justice of this national idea of the equality of man.

[Here the tumult became so great that the speaker was compelled to pause. Mr. Arnold, coming forward, urged upon all to be as quiet as possible. Those who were out of reach of Mr. Seward's voice, and desired to hear other speakers, could do so at the various stands and in the wigwam. He thought it must be very painful to the distinguished speaker to witness such a disturbance.]

GOV. SEWARD—Fellow citizens: Do not suppose that this disturbance, which I know is involuntary on your part, gives me any pain whatever. [Applause.] There is no pressure here which an honest mind need regret. I only regret that I have not voice enough to reach the whole of this vast assembly, or even the twentieth part of it. I will proceed, trusting that something I may say will reach the ears of most of the assemblage. As necessarily I must change my position as I speak to make you hear me, addressing first this side and then that, no one will, I fear, be able to preserve the connection of my remarks, except myself—and he is a very fortunate speaker who does that. [Laughter.]

I was speaking of this national idea—that it needs no exposition anywhere. It is one of those propositions that when addressed to thoughtful men needs no exposition or defence. And why not?

Here we can see for ourselves this mean and miserable rivulet of black African slavery, stealing along turbid and muddy as it is drawn from its stagnant source in the slave states; we see that it is pestilential in the atmosphere it passes through; we can see how inadequate it is and unfit to irrigate a whole continent with the living waters of health and life; we can see how it is that everything within its sphere withers and droops; while on the other hand, we can also see this broad flood of free labor as it descends the mountain sides in torrents, and is gathered in rivulets, increasing in volume and power, and to spread itself abroad. We can well see by this work what it has already done, how it irrigates and must continue to irrigate this whole

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

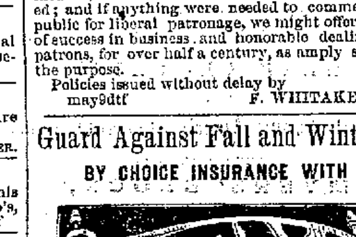

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

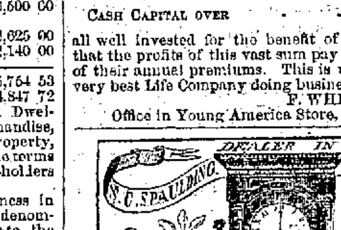

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

Gov. Seward was greeted as he came forward with enthusiastic and long continued cheers. He spoke as follows:

Hail to the state of Illinois! whose iron roads form the spinal column of that system of internal continental trade which surpasses all the foreign commerce of the country, and has no parallel or imitation in any other country on the face of the globe. Hail Chicago! the heart which supplies life to this great system of railroads—Chicago, the last and most wonderful of all the marvelous creations of civilization in North America.

Hail to this council chamber of the great republican party! justly adapted by its vastness and its simplicity to its great purposes—the hall where the representatives of freemen passed that creed of republican faith, which carries healing for the relief of a disordered nation. Woe, woe, be to him who shall add to or shall substract one word from that simple, sublime, truthful, beneficent creed.

Hail to the representatives of the republican party, chosen here by the republicans of the United States, and placed upon the platform of that creed. Happy shall he be who shall give them his suffrage. If he be an old man, he shall show the virtue of wisdom acquired by experience; if he be a young man, he shall in all his coming years tell his fellow men with pride, "I too voted for Abraham Lincoln." (Great applause.)

Fellow citizens, that republican creed is nevertheless no partisan creed. It is a national faith, because it is the embodiment of the one life-sustaining, life-expanding idea of the American republic. What is the idea more or less than simply this:—That civilization is to be maintained and carried on upon this continent by federal states, based upon the principles of free soil, free labor, free speech, equal rights and universal suffrage? (Loud applause.)

Fellow citizens, this is now new idea.—This idea had its first utterance, and the boldest and clearest of all utterances it has received, in the very first words which were spoken by this nation when it came before the world, took its place upon the stage of human action, and asserted its independence in the fear of God, and its confidence of the approval of mankind; declaring that henceforth it held those to be its enemies, who should oppose it in war, and those to be its friends who should maintain with them relations of peace. That utterance was expressed in these simple words: "We hold these these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, and have inalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." This great national idea has been working out its fruits ever since. Its work is seen in the perfect acceptance of it by eighteen of the thirty-four states of this Union—or seventeen of the thirty-three, if Kansas is to be considered out. It is asserting itself in the establishment of new states throughout the west, as it has revolutionized all of western and southern Europe. Why is this idea so effective? It is because it is the one chief living, burning, inextinguishable thought of human nature itself, entertained by man in every age and in every clime.

Fellow citizens, this national idea works not unopposed. Every good and virtuous and benevolent principle in nature has its antagonist, and this great national idea works in perpetual opposition—I may be allowed to say in irrepressible conflict, (prolonged applause) with an erroneous, a deceitful, a delusive idea. Do you ask what that delusive idea is? It is the idea that civilization ought and can be effected on this continent, by this form of federal states, based on the principle of slave soil—of African slave labor, of unequal rights and unequal representation, resulting in unequal suffrage.

(Here there was much tumult and confusion, owing to efforts of those beyond the reach of his voice to hear, drowning the speaker's voice.)

Fellow citizens: Can it be that this great creed of ours needs exposition or defence? It seems to me so evidently just and true that it requires no exposition and needs no defence. Certainly in foreign countries it needs none. In Scotland or France or Germany or Russia, on the shores of the Medditerranean, in Europe, or in Asia, or Africa, you will never find one human being who denies the truth and the justice of this national idea of the equality of man.

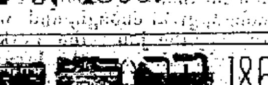

[Here the tumult became so great that the speaker was compelled to pause. Mr. Arnold, coming forward, urged upon all to be as quiet as possible. Those who were out of reach of Mr. Seward's voice, and desired to hear other speakers, could do so at the various stands and in the wigwam. He thought it must be very painful to the distinguished speaker to witness such a disturbance.]

Gov. SEWARD—Fellow citizens: Do not suppose that this disturbance, which I know is involuntary on your part, gives me any pain whatever. [Applause.] There is no pressure here which an honest mind need regret. I only regret that I have not voice enough to reach the whole of this vast assembly, or even the twentieth part of it. I will proceed, trusting that something I may say will reach the ears of most of the assemblage. As necessarily I must change my position as I speak to make you hear me, addressing first this side and then that, no one will, I fear, be able to preserve the connection of my remarks, except myself—and he is a very fortunate speaker who does that. [Laughter.]

I was speaking of this national idea—that it needs no exposition anywhere. It is one of those propositions that when addressed to thoughtful men needs no exposition or defence. And why not?

Here we can see for ourselves this mean and miserable rivulet of black African slavery, stealing along turbid and muddy as it is drawn from its stagnant source in the slave states; we see that it is pestilential in the atmosphere it passes through; we can see how inadequate it is and unfit to irrigate a whole continent with the living waters of health and life; we can see how it is that everything within its sphere withers and droops; while on the other hand, we can also see this broad flood of free labor as it descends the mountain sides in torrents, and is gathered in rivulets, increasing in volume and power, and to spread itself abroad. We can well see by this work what it has already done, how it irrigates and must continue to irrigate this whole

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

Gov. Seward was greeted as he came forward with enthusiastic and long continued cheers. He spoke as follows:

Hail to the state of Illinois! whose iron roads form the spinal column of that system of internal continental trade which surpasses all the foreign commerce of the country, and has no parallel or imitation in any other country on the face of the globe.

Hail Chicago! the heart which supplies life to this great system of railroads—Chicago, the last and most wonderful of all the marvelous creations of civilization in North America.

Hail to this council chamber of the great republican party! justly adapted by its vastness and its simplicity to its great purposes—the hall where the representatives of freemen passed that creed of republican faith, which carries healing for the relief of a disordered nation. Woe, woe, be to him who shall add to or shall substract one word from that simple, sublime, truthful, beneficent creed.

Hail to the representatives of the republican party, chosen here by the republicans of the United States, and placed upon the platform of that creed. Happy shall he be who shall give them his suffrage. If he be an old man, he shall show the virtue of wisdom acquired by experience; if he be a young man, he shall in all his coming years tell his fellow men with pride, "I too voted for Abraham Lincoln." (Great applause.)

Fellow citizens, that republican creed is nevertheless no partisan creed. It is a national faith, because it is the embodiment of the one life-sustaining, life-expanding idea of the American republic. What is the idea more or less than simply this:—That civilization is to be maintained and carried on upon this continent by federal states, based upon the principles of free soil, free labor, free speech, equal rights and universal suffrage? (Loud applause.)

Fellow citizens, this is now new idea.—This idea had its first utterance, and the boldest and clearest of all utterances it has received, in the very first words which were spoken by this nation when it came before the world, took its place upon the stage of human action, and asserted its independence in the fear of God, and its confidence of the approval of mankind; declaring that henceforth it held those to be its enemies, who should oppose it in war, and those to be its friends who should maintain with them relations of peace. That utterance was expressed in these simple words: "We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, and have inalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." This great national idea has been working out its fruits ever since. Its work is seen in the perfect acceptance of it by eighteen of the thirty-four states of this Union—or seventeen of the thirty-three, if Kansas is to be considered out. It is asserting itself in the establishment of new states throughout the west, as it has revolutionized all of western and southern Europe. Why is this idea so effective? It is because it is the one chief living, burning, inextinguishable thought of human nature itself, entertained by man in every age and in every clime.

Fellow citizens, this national idea works not unopposed. Every good and virtuous and benevolent principle in nature has its antagonist, and this great national idea works in perpetual opposition—I may be allowed to say in irrepressible conflict, (prolonged applause) with an erroneous, a deceitful, a delusive idea. Do you ask what that delusive idea is? It is the idea that civilization ought and can be effected on this continent, by this form of federal states, based on the principle of slave soil—of African slave labor, of unequal rights and unequal representation, resulting in unequal suffrage.

(Here there was much tumult and confusion, owing to efforts of those beyond the reach of his voice to hear, drowning the speaker's voice.)

Fellow citizens: Can it be that this great creed of ours needs exposition or defence? It seems to me so evidently just and true that it requires no exposition and needs no defence. Certainly in foreign countries it needs none. In Scotland or France or Germany or Russia, on the shores of the Medditerranean, in Europe, or in Asia, or Africa, you will never find one human being who denies the truth and the justice of this national idea of the equality of man.

[Here the tumult became so great that the speaker was compelled to pause. Mr. Arnold, coming forward, urged upon all to be as quiet as possible. Those who were out of reach of Mr. Seward's voice, and desired to hear other speakers, could do so at the various stands and in the wigwam. He thought it must be very painful to the distinguished speaker to witness such a disturbance.]

GOV. SEWARD—Fellow citizens: Do not suppose that this disturbance, which I know is involuntary on your part, gives me any pain whatever. [Applause.] There is no pressure here which an honest mind need regret. I only regret that I have not voice enough to reach the whole of this vast assembly, or even the twentieth part of it. I will proceed, trusting that something I may say will reach the ears of most of the assemblage. As necessarily I must change my position as I speak to make you hear me, addressing first this side and then that, no one will, I fear, be able to preserve the connection of my remarks, except myself—and he is a very fortunate speaker who does that. [Laughter.]

I was speaking of this national idea—that it needs no exposition anywhere. It is one of those propositions that when addressed to thoughtful men needs no exposition or defence. And why not?

Here we can see for ourselves this mean and miserable rivulet of black African slavery, stealing along turbid and muddy as it is drawn from its stagnant source in the slave states; we see that it is pestilential in the atmosphere it passes through; we can see how inadequate it is and unfit to irrigate a whole continent with the living waters of health and life; we can see how it is that everything within its sphere withers and droops; while on the other hand, we can also see this broad flood of free labor as it descends the mountain sides in torrents, and is gathered in rivulets, increasing in volume and power, and, to spread itself abroad. We can well see by this work what it has already done, how it irrigates and must continue to irrigate this whole

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Nomination of Senator.

The senatorial convention to-day nominated A. E. FOOTE, of the town of Center, on the 9th formal ballot. This ballot stood, A. E. Foot 24, J. J. R. Pease 19, W. H. Tripp 1, C. R. Gibbs 1, Z. P. Burdick 1.

Mr. Foot has been a representative in the assembly, and was a member of the second constitutional convention. He has occupied other public stations, and in all of them has discharged his duties faithfully and acceptably to the people. As a member of the senate, he will prove an intelligent legislator and a true republican in all matters affecting the the politial interests of the party. His election is a matter of course, and by a majority worthy of the 17th district, of which he has long been a prominent and honored resident.

☞The extract from Schurz's Springfield speech, which has been maliciously wrested from its context, so as to make it appear that Schurz defamed the memory of the fathers and uttered moral treason to the great doctrine of the equality of the rights of man, is having an extensive run among the lower strata of democratic newspapers. Now, the use which is made of that extract is far worse and more despicable than an outright forgery, and it is not at all surprising that some of the mendacious scoundrels who are guilty of it, should be brought to an account for it. Such a circumstance happened at Carlisle, Pa., the other day, when Schurz was making a speech. A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

A democratic editor, by the name of Bratton, and postmaster at Carlisle, had reproduced this garbled extract. Mr. Schurz read from his speech the whole passage in which it occurs, and showed what a glaring perversion of his true meaning had been put upon it by Mr. Bratton, and mentioned that Bratton had called upon him and apologized for the criticism he had made upon it. Bratton, who chanced to be among the audience, exclaimed with the utmost violence of manner, that he had not apologized. Carl Schurz replied coolly that "a gentleman knowing the truth would have apologized, and that he perceived clearly Mr. Bratton could not be classed in that category. The reproduction of this distorted text after his explanation of it, was a most villainous slander." Bratton grew more and more excited, and the young men from half a dozen parts of the house rushed towards him with the utmost fierceness and amid loud cries. Only the entreaties of the speaker and the warm intervention of the officers of the meating prevented him from being severely beaten.

The "Dry Goods Arrangement" in New York.

The present political campaign presents a new and singular state of things. It is the first time in the history of politics in this country that three parties, distinct from each other in sentiment, unite in forming an electoral ticket. We allude to what is called fusion in New York. The presidential canvass is now within five weeks of its termination, and it has been ascertained that the republican party is stronger in that state than either of the other parties—hence there is an absolute necessity of a union of the discordant elements of the opposition, or a withdrawal of all effort against the republican ticket. The leaders of the opposition parties have conceived the plan of getting up an electoral ticket which is to be composed of 18 Douglas men, 10 Bell and Everett men, and 7 Breckinridge men. This is supposed to represent the capital which each party can bring into the business firm, or "dry goods arrangement," as it is not inaptly called in New York. This ticket has been published in the democratic papers of New York. It is a singular looking affair—the names of the Douglas men are in Roman type, the Bell and Everett men in Italics, and the Breckinridge men in SMALL CAPS. That is the way the printer has arranged them, so that the voters of each party shall know their men. This scheme is not quite agreed upon yet, as the Douglasites have to get rid of some of their electors who have heretofore been nominated. Reuben H. Walworth, for elector at large, does not retire with that readiness which was expected; and the Breckinridge candidate for Governor, James T. Brady, persists in denouncing the arrangement.—Still, the "old heads" of the democratic party have hopes that all will come into the plan, at last, since it is the only method which affords to them the least hope of beating Lincoln in New York. The republicans look upon it with derision and contempt, and are heartily glad that their opponents are all to be put into one boat, where they can sink the whole of them together.

It must be evident to all that men who can conceive of such a plan to carry out an electioneering plot, have lost all political principle. Their only object is to beat their opponents, without any expectation of advancing a political idea. When a man deposits this fusion ticket in the ballot box he votes for popular sovereignty, (Douglas); for intervention in favor of slavery, and not getting this, for secession, (Breckinridge); for know nothingism and a slave code, (Bell and Everett). This will be a pretty heavy dose for some of the political stomachs in the rural districts of New York, and must disgust all right thinking men throughout the country; for if successful, the only effect it can have will be to take the election out of the hands of the people and throw it into congress, where Lane is sure to be elected.

A RETRACTION.—We are glad to find one democratic paper with self respect enough to do something like justice to Mr. Schurz. The Cleveland Democrat (Breckinridge) says that some days since it published the extract from that gentleman's Springfield speech, which has become so famous. "It seems," says that paper, "that Schurz was commenting upon a speech of Mr. Douglas, and gave what he claimed was a fair deduction from the little Squatter's speech, comprised in the obnoxious sentiments which, clipped from their context, and without a word of explanation, makes Schurz the utterer of sentiments as his own. The facts being, in brief, as we state them, Schurz is entitled to the correction from all who published the extract, which we did, believing it at the moment genuine. The fellow who first cut it out and published it, did a contemptible act, in comparison to which the robbing of a henroost is virtue, for want might be plead as an excuse for the latter, while for the other no excuse can be offered."

ONE STEP LOWER!—The Democrat of this morning republishes its list of extracts from prominent republicans, including its previous forgeries, and appends the extract from Carl Schurz at Springfield in relation to the declaration of independence as the sentiments of Mr. Schurz. This kind of work seems so congenial to the taste of the Democrat that it is impossible to forego its love for it.

THE DOUGLAS RECEPTION AT CHICAGO.—The Press and Tribune of to-day says that only ninety-three persons went out to Michigan City to meet Douglas, yesterday, instead of the five hundred who were expected to go. Douglas was received at Chicago about eight o'clock last evening.—By employing extraordinary methods, the democracy were able to get out on this occasion, 2421, (actual count) horse and foot, men and boys, music and officers included. Two hundred and eighty-eight draymen were mounted on their horses.

The regular organized and drilled "Ever-Readies," corresponding to our Wide-Awakes, did not exceed 400, including two small companies from Aurora and Batavia. All the rest of the torch-bearers were pressed into the service for the occasion.

As this is a pleasant day we hope the Douglas demonstration will turn out better than the slim affair of last night would seem to warrant.

The Times and Herald says it has no heart to compare the reception of Douglas and Seward, "so sublime was the display presented"!

MARRIAGE RETURNS IN NEW YORK.—There is a slight increase in the number of marriage returns for the month of August, thus far handed in to the office of the register of records, Dr. Ramsay. The Roman Catholic priests, however, following the example of Archbishop Hughes, continue to withhold their reports, thus denying the authority of the state in the matter. No step has yet been taken towards the prosecution for penalties, of any of the offending parties. Let the law be enforced, we say, without distinction of sect.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

continent; how every good and virtuous plant lives and breathes by its support.—We see the magical fertility which results from its presence, because it is around us and before us.

We sometimes, fellow citizens, hear an argument for a former proposition made in this form: One offers to "take a thing to be done by the job." Let us imagine for a moment that there could be one man bold enough, great enough, and wise enough to take "by the job" the work of establishing civilization over this broad continent of North America. He would, of course, want to do it in the shortest time, at the cheapest expense, and in the best manner. Now would such a man ever dream of importing African barbarians; or of taking their children or descendants in this country to build up and people great free states all over this land, from the Allegheny Mountains to the Pacific ocean? Would he not, on the contrary, accept, as the rightful, natural, healthful and best possible agency which he could select, the free labor of free men, the minds, the thoughts, the wills, the purposes, the ambitions of enlightened free men, such as we claim ourselves to be; would he not receive all who claimed to aid in such services as these, whether they were born on this soil, or were cradled in foreign lands?

I care not, fellow citizens, what reckless men may say in the heat of debate, or under the influence of interest, passion or prejudice; it is a matter of indifference whether slavery shall pervade the whole land or a part of the land, and freedom the residue—that freedom and slavery may take their chances—who "don't care whether slavery voted up or voted down." There is no man who has an enlightened conscience who is indifferent on the subject of human bondage. [Applause.] There is no man who is enlightened and honest, who would not abate some considerable part of all his worldly wealth, if he could thereby convert this land from a land cursed in whole or in part with slavery, into a land of equal and impartial liberty; [cheers] and I will tell you how I know this: I know it, because every man demands freedom for himself, and refuses to be a slave. No free man, who is a man, would consent to be a slave; no slave who has any manhood in him, does not desire to be free; no man who has unperverted reason does not lament, condemn and deplore the idea of commerce in man; the executioner is always odious, even though his task is necessary to the administration of justice. But we turn with horror and disgust from him who wields the axe. So the slave slave holder turns with disgust from the auctioneer who sells the men and women whom he has reared and held in slavery, although he receives the profits of the sale into his own coffers.

I know this national idea of ours is just and right for another reason; it is that in the whole history of society, human nature has never, never honored one man who reduced another man to bondage. The world is full of monuments in honor of men who have delivered their fellow men from slavery.

Since this idea is self-evidently just, and is of itself pure, peaceable, easy to be entreated and full of good works, will you tell me why it is that it has not been accepted by the common people? Alas! that it should be so. Perhaps I can throw light on that by asking another question: Is not Christianity pure, peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, and full of good works? and yet is not the church of Jesus Christ still a church militant? Alas! that it should be so. Christianity explains for herself how it is that she is rejected of men. She says it is because men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil. I shall not say this in regard to the subject of freedom. I know better; I know that my countrymen love light—not darkness. They are even in the state and disposition of the Roman Governor, "almost thou persuadest me to be a christian," and almost the American people are persuaded to be republican. [Cheers and laughter.] Why, then, are they not altogether persuaded? The answer cannot be given without some reflection. It involves an examination of our national conduct and life.

The reason why the country is only almost and not altogether persuaded to be republican, is because the national sense is perverted—the national sense and judgment has been perverted. We inherited slavery; it is organized into our national life—into our forms of government. It exists among us, unsuspected in its evils, because we have become accustomed, out of national habit, to enduring and tolerating slavery. The effect of this habit arising from the presence of slavery, is to produce a want of moral courage among the people and an indisposition to entertain and examine the subject. It is not, however, the fault of the people. This lack of moral courage is chiefly the fault of the political representatives of the people. In every district in the United States, and for every seat in congress, the people might select men apparently as brave, as truthful, as fearless and as firm as Owen Lovejoy. [Applause.]

You may fill the halls of Congress with men from all the free states who seem to be as reliable as Owen Lovejoy; but on the clangor of the slavery bugle in the hall they begin to waver and fail. They retire. They suffer themselves to be demoralized; and they return to demoralize the people. Slavery never hesitates to raise the clangor of the trumpets to terrify the timid.

Slavery has, too, another argument for the timid than terror; it is power. The concentration of slavery gives it a fearful political power. You know how long it has been the controlling power in the executive departments of the government. Slavery uses that power, as might be expected—to punish those who oppose it, to reward those who serve it. All representatives are naturally ambitious; all representatives like fame; if they do not like pecuniary rewards they like the distinctions of place. They like to be popular. When the people are demoralized he who is constant becomes offensive and obnoxious; he loses position and the party chooses some other representative who will be less obnoxious. These demoralizd representatives inculcate among the people promiscuous lessons and sustain themselves by adopting compromises. They compromise so far, if possible, as to save place and a show of principle, they save themselves first and let freedom take what remains.

A community thus demoralized by its representatives is fearful of considering the subject of slavery at all. It does not like to look back upon its record; it does not dare to look forward to see what are to be the consequences of errors. It desires peace and quiet. We shall see in a moment what fearful sacrifices have been made under the influence of this demoralization of the power of the government.

The first act of demoralization was to surrender the Territory of Arkansas and the Territory of Missouri to slavery, and also by implication all the rest of the Territory of Louisiana acquired by purchase from France, that lay south of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes north latitude.—Take up your maps when you go home, and see what a broad belt of country, lying south of that line was surrendered, with the states of Missouri and Arkansas, to slavery. Next, under the influence of this same demoralization, the whole of the peninsula of Florida, acquired from Spain, was surrendered to slavery, rendering it practically useless for all the national purposes for which it was acquired, making it a burthen instead of a national safeguard in the Gulf of Mexico.

But Texas was surrendered to slavery, and brought in with the gratuitous agreement that four slave states should be made out of that Territory. Next, in 1850, Utah and New Mexico were abandoned to slavery. After these events, following in quick succession, came the abrogation, in the year 1854, of the restriction contained in the Missouri Compromise, by which it had been stipulated that all north of 36 deg. 30 min., excepting the state of Missouri, should be dedicated to freedom. That was abandoned to slavery to take it if she could get it; and the administration of the government of the United States, with scarcely a protest from the people, went on to favor its occupancy by slavery. As a legitimate consequence came the refusal, on the part of the national government—for it was a practical refusal, or neglect—to admit Kansas into the Union because she would not accept slavery.

After this demoralization had been carried out in these practical measures; what right had the nation to be surprised when the President and the Supreme Court at last pronounced that, which in no previous year, either of them would have dared to assert—that this constitution of ours is not a constitution of liberty, but that it is a constitution of human bondage; that slavery is the normal condition of the American people on each acre of the domain of the United States not organized into states—that is to say, that wherever this banner of ours, this star-spangled banner, whose glories we celebrate so highly—wherever that banner floats over a national ship or a national territory, there is a land not of freedom, but of slavery!

Hence, it has followed, that the nation up to 1854 surrendered all the unoccupied portions of this continent to slavery, and thereby practically excluded freemen—because experience all shows that when you have made a slave territory, freedom avoids it; just as much as when you make a free state, like Kansas, slavery disappears from it.

I have said that the country was demoralized by its political representatives; but these political representatives have their agents. All men necessarily fall into some political party, and into some religious sect. Ambition sways in both political parties and religious sects. To gain office in a political party and share its favor, when the nation was demoralized, it became necessary that the candidate should be tolerant of slavery. So religious sects were ambitious to extend their ecclesiastical sway. The consequence was that year by year slavery had party upon party; slavery had religious sect upon religious sect; church after church. But alas! until the dawn of the year, freedom had no part and no religious sect throughout this whole country.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

The steamship city of Baltimore, from Liverpool on Wednesday, 26th ult., via Queenstown 27th, passed this point at three o'clock this afternoon.

The cardinals continued to advance in the Papal states. The fortress of Saute Leo had surrendered after some hours firing, and was occupied by the Sardinians,—Ancona was bombarded nine hours by Sardinian vessels without much effect. The reply was vigorous.

Later dispatches say the cannonade by land and sea continued, but at intervals.—The Sardinians occupied the fortress of Cartellan.

The official Roman journal contains Cardinal Antonelli's note claiming the assistance of the catholic powers.

Garibaldi had concentrated his troops on the hights of Volturno preparatory to attacking the Neapolitans. The Garibaldians had met with some reverses near Capua.

Garibaldi, in a fresh proclamation, says that he will join the Sapdinian troops at Rome, and begin a march against Venice.

The King of Naples had published a decree, at Gaeta, ordering a state of siege in all the provinces where a revolutionary struggle exists, and cashiering all officers of the Marine as guilty of high treason except those of one vessel, which went to Gaeta. The republican cause was gaining ground in Naples and influence over Garibaldi.

It was reported that Victor Hugo had arrived at Naples.

Cardinal Sparza had been expelled from Naples by the dictatorial goverment. It was positively asserted, notwithstanding official contradiction, that Napoleon sought an invitation to Warsaw at the royal meeting. Breadstuffs were advancing in France.

Cape of Good Hope mail to Aug. 21st have arrived in England. Prince Alfred was at the cape and met an enthusiastic reception. Business at the cape was dull.

The City of Baltimore has 582 passengers and a large cargo. Sunday the 30th, she passed the steamship City of Washington latitude 50° 48′ and longitude 28° 29′ bound east.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.

Three mile race over the Fashion course yesterday between Nicholas I, and Oysterman. It was won by Nicholas—time 5:50.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 4th.

The pony express, with San Francisco dates to the 22d ult., arrived here last night.

SAN FRANCINCO, Sept. 22d.—The People's Reform Party of San Francisco has decided to nominate a full municipal ticket, irrespective of politics.

The state agricultural fair opened at Sacramento on the 20th, under very favorable auspices. The largest receipts on a single day exceeded $4,000. The best feature of the fair is said to be the display of blooded stock, requiring four hundred and fifty stalls for their accommodation.

There is nothing later concerning the Oregon senatorial election. It is said to be the intention to elect Baker and Nesmith, whether a quorum can be got up in the senate or not. As the senate organized and elected its sergeant-at-arms without a quorum, it is doubtful if that officer has power to arrest absent senators.

Advices from British Columbia are to the 9th ult.

The Siberian Russian fleet of war vessels had been ordered to the Peiho.

Advices from Victoria are to the 8th ult.

The Wilson G. Hunt brought down about fifteen thousand dollars, in dust. The miners on Rock Creek are making good wages.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 3d.

The murderers of the two persons whose bodies were found on the mountain road between this place and Van Buren on the 31st, were brought here last night. This morning a large crowd collected and insisted upon hanging them at once, but by the repeated efforts of the most influential citizens, the crowd was finally prevailed upon to allow the man's capturers to take him back to the county in which he committed the deed. It is thought that he will be hung to-day or to-morrow. His wife is in custody as an accessory to the deed.

VAN BUREN, Ark., Oct. 4th.—The murderer has confessed his guilt and been lodged in jail.

Two horse thieves named Owen and Robinson, were arrested this morning, and will probably meet summary punishment.

The Vigilance committee are actively engaged in riding the country of a host of lawless characters who infest counties bordering on the Indian country. All suspected persons are closely watched.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct., 4.

The Columbus Times has a despatch dated Miarana, 2d, saying Florida sends greeting. The democracy have the state. The returns thus far are very limited and the result as predicted by them uncertain.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 5.

Flour market active, sales of 350 bbls. white creek spring 3,50. Wheat—owing to advance reported from New York and decline in freights here, the market advanced, 91a93 was freely paid for No. 1 and 2, closing firm.

PRINCE OF WALES AT WASHINGTON.—Baron Renfrew arrived at 4 o'clock on Wednesday by a special train. There was about 1000 spectators at the station, evincing intense anxiety to obtain a view of his person, and in this they were gratified.—They greeted his appearance with cheers. Immediately on the arrival of the train, Gen. Cass was introduced to Lord Renfrew by Lord Lyons, when the former said he had the pleasure of welcoming his lordship to Washington in the name of the president, and with his lordship's permission, he would accompany him to the executive mansion.

Lord Renfrew rode thither in company with Gen. Cass, Lord Lyons and the Duke of Newcastle. Upon arriving at the mansion, where the president was in waiting to receive him, he was presented to him by Gen. Cass, and received a cordial welcome. Lord Lyons then performed the ceremony of introducing the suite.

As these proceedings were private, the gates of the president's grounds were closed against intrusion, and attended by police officers.

It is a noticeable fact that Gen. Cass, who, under the theory of the British constitution, was born a British subject, his nativity being before the treaty of peace, received the prince in the name of the president. Besides, he was present at the coronation of the prince's mother.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stiring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,
Proprietor of the
Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,
adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the Petty Slop Shops
in the land. From the fact that the Original
Young America Clothing House
has held for the last EIGHT YEARS
the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the Cheapest Establishment
of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the Oldest Clothing House in the City
feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.
The People of Rock County
are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce
A BOGUS LAW
upon them, to get them to purchase their
Fall and Winter Clothing
from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the Largest and Best Stock of Clothing
of all kinds, including the finest
CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,
and the best variety of
BEAVER OVERCOATS!
ever brought to the west. Also,
Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,
of every description, with
Pants and Vests
to match, as well as any quantity of Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkercieƒs, Stocks, Under Shirts, and every article of
Wearing Apparel
that man can want.
If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the Original Young America Clothing House
does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of Hats and Caps
down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words
"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"
meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.
His Merchant Tailoring Department
is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,
MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,
who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want CHEAP CLOTHING,
to the
Original Young America Clothing House

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Nomination of Senator.

The senatorial convention to-day nominated A. E. FOOTE, of the town of Center, on the 9th formal ballot. This ballot stood, A. E. Foot 24, J. J. R. Pease 19, W. H. Tripp 1, C. R. Gibbs 1, Z. P. Burdick 1.

Mr. Foot has been a representative in the assembly, and was a member of the second constitutional convention. He has occupied other public stations, and in all of them has discharged his duties faithfully and acceptably to the people. As a member of the senate, he will prove an intelligent legislator and a true republican in all matters effecting the the politial interests of the party. His election is a matter of course, and by a majority worthy of the 17th district, of which he has long been a prominent and honored resident.

☞ The extract from Schurz's Springfield speech, which has been maliciously wrested from its context, so as to make it appear that Schurz defamed the memory of the fathers and uttered moral treason to the great doctrine of the equality of the rights of man, is having an extensive run among the lower strata of democratic newspapers. Now, the use which is made of that extract is far worse and more despicable than an outright forgery, and it is not at all surprising that some of the mendacious scoundrels who are guilty of it, should be brought to an account for it. Such a circumstance happened at Carlisle, Pa., the other day, when Schurz was making a speech. A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

A democratic editor, by the name of Bratton, and postmaster at Carlisle, had reproduced this garbled extract. Mr. Schurz read from his speech the whole passage in which it occurs, and showed what a glaring perversion of his true meaning had been put upon it by Mr. Bratton, and mentioned that Bratton had called upon him and apologized for the criticism he had made upon it. Bratton, who chanced to be among the audience, exclaimed with the utmost violence of manner, that he had not apologized. Carl Schurz replied coolly that "a gentleman knowing the truth would have apologized, and that he perceived clearly Mr. Bratton could not be classed in that category. The reproduction of this distorted text after his explanation of it, was a most villainous slander." Bratton grew more and more excited, and the young men from half a dozen parts of the house rushed towards him with the utmost fierceness and amid loud cries. Only the entreaties of the speaker and the warm intervention of the officers of the meeting prevented him from being severely beaten.

The "Dry Goods Arrangement" in New York.

The present political campaign presents a new and singular state of things. It is the first time in the history of politics in this country that three parties, distinct from each other in sentiment, unite in forming an electoral ticket. We allude to what is called fusion in New York. The presidential canvass is now within five weeks of its termination, and it has been ascertained that the republican party is stronger in that state than either of the other parties—hence there is an absolute necessity of a union of the discordant elements of the opposition, or a withdrawal of all effort against the republican ticket. The leaders of the opposition parties have conceived the plan of getting up an electoral ticket which is to be composed of 18 Douglas men, 10 Bell and Everett men, and 7 Breckinridge men. This is supposed to represent the capital which each party can bring into the business firm, or "dry goods arrangement," as it is not inaptly called in New York. This ticket has been published in the democratic papers of New York. It is a singular looking affair—the names of the Douglas men are in Roman type, the Bell and Everett men in Italics, and the Breckinridge men in SMALL CAPS. That is the way the printer has arranged them, so that the voters of each party shall know their men. This scheme is not quite agreed upon yet, as the Douglasites have to get rid of some of their electors who have heretofore been nominated. Reuben H. Walworth, for elector at large, does not retire with that readiness which was expected; and the Breckinridge candidate for Governor, James T. Brady, persists in denouncing the arrangement.—Still, the "old heads" of the democratic party have hopes that all will come into the plan, at last, since it is the only method which affords to them the least hope of beating Lincoln in New York. The republicans look upon it with derision and contempt, and are heartily glad that their opponents are all to be put into one boat, where they can sink the whole of them together.

It must be evident to all that men who can conceive of such a plan to carry out an electioneering plot, have lost all political principle. Their only object is to beat their opponents, without any expectation of advancing a political idea. When a man deposits this fusion ticket in the ballot box he votes for popular sovereignty, (Douglas); for intervention in favor of slavery, and not getting this, for secession, (Breckinridge); for know nothingism and a slave code, (Bell and Everett). This will be a pretty heavy dose for some of the political stomachs in the rural districts of New York, and must disgust all right thinking men throughout the country; for if successful, the only effect it can have will be to take the election out of the hands of the people and throw it into congress, where Lane is sure to be elected.

A RETRACTION.—We are glad to find one democratic paper with self respect enough to do something like justice to Mr. Schurz. The Cleveland Democrat (Breckinridge) says that some days since it published the extract from that gentleman's Springfield speech, which has become so famous. "It seems," says that paper, "that Schurz was commenting upon a speech of Mr. Douglas, and gave what he claimed was a fair deduction from the little Squatter's speech, comprised in the obnoxious sentiments which, clipped from their context, and without a word of explanation, makes Schurz the utterer of sentiments as his own. The facts being, in brief, as we state them, Schurz is entitled to the correction from all who published the extract, which we did, believing it at the moment genuine. The fellow who first cut it out and published it, did a contemptible act, in comparison to which the robbing of a henroost is virtue, for want might be plead as an excuse for the latter, while for the other no excuse can be offered."

ONE STEP LOWER!—The Democrat of this morning republishes its list of extracts from prominent republicans, including its previous forgeries, and appends the extract from Carl Schurz at Springfield in relation to the declaration of independence as the sentiments of Mr. Schurz. This kind of work seems so congenial to the taste of the Democrat that it is impossible to forego its love for it.

THE DOUGLAS RECEPTION AT CHICAGO.—The Press and Tribune of to-day says that only ninety-three persons went out to Michigan City to meet Douglas, yesterday, instead of the five hundred who were expected to go. Douglas was received at Chicago about eight o'clock last evening.—By employing extraordinary methods, the democracy were able to get out on this occasion, 2421, (actual count) horse and foot, men and boys, music and officers included. Two hundred and eighty-eight draymen were mounted on their horses.

The regular organized and drilled "Ever-Readies," corresponding to our Wide-Awakes, did not exceed 400, including two small companies from Aurora and Batavia. All the rest of the torch-bearers were pressed into the service for the occasion.

As this is a pleasant day we hope the Douglas demonstration will turn out better than the slim affair of last night would seem to warrant.

The Times and Herald says it has no heart to compare the reception of Douglas and Seward, "so sublime was the display presented"!

MARRIAGE RETURNS IN NEW YORK.—There is a slight increase in the number of marriage returns for the month of August, thus far handed in to the office of the register of records, Dr. Ramsay. The Roman Catholic priests, however, following the example of Archbishop Hughes, continue to withhold their reports, thus denying the authority of the state in the matter. No step has yet been taken towards the prosecution for penalties, of any of the offending parties. Let the law be enforced, we say, without distinction of sect.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

continent; how every good and virtuous plant lives and breathes by its support.—We see the magical fertility which results from its presence, because it is around us and before us.

We sometimes, fellow citizens, hear an argument for a former proposition made in this form: One offers to "take a thing to be done by the job." Let us imagine for a moment that there could be one man bold enough, great enough, and wise enough to take "by the job" the work of establishing civilization over this broad continent of North America. He would, of course, want to do it in the shortest time, at the cheapest expense, and in the best manner. Now would such a man ever dream of importing African barbarians; or of taking their children or descendants in this country to build up and people great free states all over this land, from the Allegheny Mountains to the Pacific ocean? Would he not, on the contrary, accept, as the rightful, natural, healthful and best possible agency which he could select, the free labor of free men, the minds, the thoughts, the wills, the purposes, the ambitions of enlightened free men, such as we claim ourselves to be; would he not receive all who claimed to aid in such services as these, whether they were born on this soil, or were cradled in foreign lands?

I care not, fellow citizens, what reckless men may say in the heat of debate, or under the influence of interest, passion or prejudice; it is a matter of indifference whether slavery shall pervade the whole land or a part of the land, and freedom the residue—that freedom and slavery may take their chances—who "don't care whether slavery voted up or voted down." There is no man who has an enlightened conscience who is indifferent on the subject of human bondage. [Applause.] There is no man who is enlightened and honest, who would not abate some considerable part of all his worldly wealth, if he could thereby convert this land from a land cursed in whole or in part with slavery, into a land of equal and impartial liberty; [cheers] and I will tell you how I know this: I know it, because every man demands freedom for himself, and refuses to be a slave. No free man, who is a man, would consent to be a slave; no slave who has any manhood in him, does not desire to be free; no man who has unperverted reason does not lament, condemn and deplore the idea of commerce in man; the executioner is always odious, even though his task is necessary to the administration of justice. But we turn with horror and disgust from him who wields the axe. So the slave slave holder turns with disgust from the auctioneer who sells the men and women whom he has reared and held in slavery, although he receives the profits of the sale into his own coffers.

I know this national idea of ours is just and right for another reason; it is that in the whole history of society, human nature has never, never honored one man who reduced another man to bondage. The world is full of monuments in honor of men who have delivered their fellow men from slavery.

Since this idea is self-evidently just, and is of itself pure, peaceable, easy to be entreated and full of good works, will you tell me why it is that it has not been accepted by the common people? Alas! that it should be so. Perhaps I can throw light on that by asking another question: Is not Christianity pure, peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, and full of good works? and yet is not the church of Jesus Christ still a church militant? Alas! that it should be so. Christianity explains for herself how it is that she is rejected of men. She says it is because men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil. I shall not say this in regard to the subject of freedom. I know better; I know that my countrymen love light—not darkness. They are even in the state and disposition of the Roman Governor, "almost thou persuadest me to be a christian," and almost the American people are persuaded to be republican. [Cheers and laughter.] Why, then, are they not altogether persuaded? The answer cannot be given without some reflection. It involves an examination of our national conduct and life.

The reason why the country is only almost and not altogether persuaded to be republican, is because the national sense is perverted—the national sense and judgment has been perverted. We inherited slavery; it is organized into our national life—into our forms of government. It exists among us, unsuspected in its evils, because we have become accustomed, out of national habit, to enduring and tolerating slavery. The effect of this habit arising from the presence of slavery, is to produce a want of moral courage among the people and an indisposition to entertain and examine the subject. It is not, however, the fault of the people. This lack of moral courage is chiefly the fault of the political representatives of the people. In every district in the United States, and for every seat in congress, the people might select men apparently as brave, as truthful, as fearless and as firm as Owen Lovejoy. [Applause.]

You may fill the halls of Congress with men from all the free states who seem to be as reliable as Owen Lovejoy; but on the clangor of the slavery bugle in the hall they begin to waver and fail. They retire. They suffer themselves to be demoralized; and they return to demoralize the people. Slavery never hesitates to raise the clangor of the trumpets to terrify the timid.

Slavery has, too, another argument for the timid than terror; it is power. The concentration of slavery gives it a fearful political power. You know how long it has been the controlling power in the executive departments of the government. Slavery uses that power, as might be expected—to punish those who oppose it, to reward those who serve it. All representatives are naturally ambitious; all representatives like fame; if they do not like pecuniary rewards they like the distinctions of place. They like to be popular. When the people are demoralized he who is constant becomes offensive and obnoxious; he loses position and the party chooses some other representative who will be less obnoxious. These demoralizd representatives inculcate among the people promiscuous lessons and sustain themselves by adopting compromises. They compromise so far, if possible, as to save place and a show of principle, they save themselves first and let freedom take what remains.

A community thus demoralized by its representatives is fearful of considering the subject of slavery at all. It does not like to look back upon its record; it does not dare to look forward to see what are to be the consequences of errors. It desires peace and quiet. We shall see in a moment what fearful sacrifices have been made under the influence of this demoralization of the power of the government.

The first act of demoralization was to surrender the Territory of Arkansas and the Territory of Missouri to slavery, and also by implication all the rest of the Territory of Louisiana acquired by purchase from France, that lay south of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes north latitude.—Take up your maps when you go home, and see what a broad belt of country, lying south of that line was surrendered, with the states of Missouri and Arkansas, to slavery. Next, under the influence of this same demoralization, the whole of the peninsula of Florida, acquired from Spain, was surrendered to slavery, rendering it practically useless for all the national purposes for which it was acquired, making it a burthen instead of a national safeguard in the Gulf of Mexico.

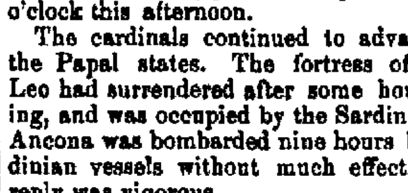

But Texas was surrendered to slavery, and brought in with the gratuitous agreement that four slave states should be made out of that Territory. Next, in 1850, Utah and New Mexico were abandoned to slavery. After these events, following in quick succession, came the abrogation, in the year 1854, of the restriction contained in the Missouri Compromise, by which it had been stipulated that all north of 36 deg. 30 min., excepting the state of Missouri, should be dedicated to freedom. That was abandoned to slavery to take it if she could get it; and the administration of the government of the United States, with scarcely a protest from the people, went on to favor its occupancy by slavery. As a legitimate consequence came the refusal, on the part of the national government—for it was a practical refusal, or neglect—to admit Kansas into the Union because she would not accept slavery.

After this demoralization had been carried out in these practical measures; what right had the nation to be surprised when the President and the Supreme Court at last pronounced that, which in no previous year, either of them would have dared to assert—that this constitution of ours is not a constitution of liberty, but that it is a constitution of human bondage; that slavery is the normal condition of the American people on each acre of the domain of the United States not organized into states—that is to say, that wherever this banner of ours, this star-spangled banner, whose glories we celebrate so highly—wherever that banner floats over a national ship or a national territory, there is a land not of freedom, but of slavery!

Hence, it has followed, that the nation up to 1854 surrendered all the unoccupied portions of this continent to slavery, and thereby practically excluded freemen—because experience all shows that when you have made a slave territory, freedom avoids it; just as much as when you make a free state, like Kansas, slavery disappears from it.

I have said that the country was demoralized by its political representatives; but these political representatives have their agents. All men necessarily fall into some political party, and into some religious sect. Ambition sways in both political parties and religious sects. To gain office in a political party and share its favor, when the nation was demoralized, it became necessary that the candidate should be tolerant of slavery. So religious sects were ambitious to extend their ecclesiastical sway. The consequence was that year by year slavery had party upon party; slavery had religious sect upon religious sect; church after church. But alas! until the dawn of the year, freedom had no part and no religious sect throughout this whole country.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

The steamship city of Baltimore, from Liverpool on Wednesday, 26th ult., via Queenstown 27th, passed this point at three o'clock this afternoon.

The cardinals continued to advance in the Papal states. The fortress of Saute Leo had surrendered after some hours firing, and was occupied by the Sardinians.—Ancona was bombarded nine hours by Sardinian vessels without much effect. The reply was vigorous.

Later dispatches say the cannonade by land and sea continued, but at intervals.—The Sardinians occupied the fortress of Cartellan.

The official Roman journal contains Cardinal Antonelli's note claiming the assistance of the catholic powers.

Garibaldi had concentrated his troops on the hights of Volturno preparatory to attacking the Neapolitans. The Garibaldians had met with some reverses near Capua.

Garibaldi, in a fresh proclamation, says that he will join the Sapdinian troops at Rome, and begin a march against Venice.

The King of Naples had published a decree, at Gaeta, ordering a state of siege in all the provinces where a revolutionary struggle exists, and cashiering all officers of the Marine as guilty of high treason except those of one vessel, which went to Gaeta. The republican cause was gaining ground in Naples and influence over Garibaldi.

It was reported that Victor Hugo had arrived at Naples.

Cardinal Sparza had been expelled from Naples by the dictatorial government. It was positively asserted, notwithstanding official contradiction, that Napoleon sought an invitation to Warsaw at the royal meeting. Breadstuffs were advancing in France.

Cape of Good Hope mail to Aug. 21st have arrived in England. Prince Alfred was at the cape and met an enthusiastic reception. Business at the cape was dull.

The City of Baltimore has 582 passengers and a large cargo. Sunday the 30th, she passed the steamship City of Washington latitude 50° 48′ and longitude 28° 29′ bound east.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 4th.

The pony express, with San Francisco dates to the 22d ult., arrived here last night.

SAN FRANCINCO, Sept. 22d.—The People's Reform Party of San Francisco has decided to nominate a full municipal ticket, irrespective of politics.

The state agricultural fair opened at Sacramento on the 20th, under very favorable auspices. The largest receipts on a single day exceeded $4,000. The best feature of the fair is said to be the display of blooded stock, requiring four hundred and fifty stalls for their accommodation.

There is nothing later concerning the Oregon senatorial election. It is said to be the intention to elect Baker and Nesmith, whether a quorum can be got up in the senate or not. As the senate organized and elected its sergeant-at-arms without a quorum, it is doubtful if that officer has power to arrest absent senators.

Advices from British Columbia are to the 9th ult.

The Siberian Russian fleet of war vessels had been ordered to the Peiho.

Advices from Victoria are to the 8th ult.

The Wilson G. Hunt brought down about fifteen thousand dollars, in dust. The miners on Rock Creek are making good wages.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 3d.

The murderers of the two persons whose bodies were found on the mountain road between this place and Van Buren on the 31st, were brought here last night. This morning a large crowd collected and insisted upon hanging them at once, but by the repeated efforts of the most influential citizens, the crowd was finally prevailed upon to allow the man's capturers to take him back to the county in which he committed the deed. It is thought that he will be hung to-day or to-morrow. His wife is in custody as an accessory to the deed.

VAN BUREN, Ark., Oct. 4th.—The murderer has confessed his guilt and been lodged in jail.

Two horse thieves named Owen and Robinson, were arrested this morning, and will probably meet summary punishment.

The Vigilance committee are actively engaged in riding the country of a host of lawless characters who infest counties bordering on the Indian country. All suspected persons are closely watched.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 4.

The Columbus Times has a despatch dated Miarana, 2d, saying Florida sends greeting. The democracy have the state. The returns thus far are very limited and the result as predicted by them uncertain.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 5.

PRINCE OF WALES AT WASHINGTON.—Baron Renfrew arrived at 4 o'clock on Wednesday by a special train. There was about 1000 spectators at the station, evincing intense anxiety to obtain a view of his person, and in this they were gratified.—They greeted his appearance with cheers. Immediately on the arrival of the train, Gen. Cass was introduced to Lord Renfrew by Lord Lyons, when the former said he had the pleasure of welcoming his lordship to Washington in the name of the president, and with his lordship's permission, he would accompany him to the executive mansion.

Lord Renfrew rode thither in company with Gen. Cass, Lord Lyons and the Duke of Newcastle. Upon arriving at the mansion, where the president was in waiting to receive him, he was presented to him by Gen. Cass, and received a cordial welcome. Lord Lyons then performed the ceremony of introducing the suite.

As these proceedings were private, the gates of the president's grounds were closed against intrusion, and attended by police officers.

It is a noticeable fact that Gen. Cass, who, under the theory of the British constitution, was born a British subject, his nativity being before the treaty of peace, received the prince in the name of the president. Besides, he was present at the coronation of the prince's mother.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stirring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now
MOSES HARSH,
Proprietor of the
Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,
adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the Petty Slop Shops
in the land. From the fact that the Original
Young America Clothing House
has held for the last EIGHT YEARS
the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the Cheapest Establishment
of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the Oldest Clothing House in the City
feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.
The People of Rock County
are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce
A BOGUS LAW
upon them, to get them to purchase their
Fall and Winter Clothing
from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the Largest and Best Stock of Clothing
of all kinds, including the finest
CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,
and the best variety of
BEAVER OVERCOATS!
ever brought to the west. Also,
Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,
of every description, with
Pants and Vests
to match, as well as any quantity of
Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,
and every article of
Wearing Apparel
that man can want.
If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the Original Young America Clothing House
does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of Hats and Caps
down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words
"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"
meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.
His Merchant Tailoring Department
is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,
MR. A. B. McLEAN,
who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Second Ward Republican Caucus.

The republican electors of the second ward of the city of Janesville met at No. 2's engine house, Wednesday evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the senatorial convention, to be held in this city on the 5th inst.

The meeting was called to order by A. C. Bates, esq., on whose motion C. Loftus Martin was chosen president, and S. J. M. Putnam secretary.

Wm. A. Lawrence, Hiram Jackman and George Barnes were then unanimously elected delegates to said convention, with the power of substitution.

C. LOFTS MARTIN, Pres't.
S. J. M. PUTNAM, Sec'y.
Janesville, Oct. 3d, 1860.

THE DOUGLAS CELEBRATION.—Six passenger cars left in the train this morning for the Douglas meeting in Chicago. One was filled with emptiness, and another had a dozen or less occupants, while one was filled with the regular passengers over the road.

The arrangements, so far as the railroad company was concerned, were the same as for the Seward meeting last Tuesday.—Three cars were chartered, by each party, and these were filled at $1 for the round trip. The difference, so far as the passengers were concerned, was, that for the Seward meeting the $1 fare was exhausted by the Wide-Awakes of Janesville, Milton and Monroe; for the Douglas meeting, the $1 tickets were sold indiscriminately, and many republicans availed themselves of the cheap price to visit Chicago on business or for the pleasure of the visit and trip. Indeed, so great was the anxiety and effort to get rid of the cheap tickets, and so many were urged upon and sold to republicans who purchased for the reasons we have stated, that a good deal of complaint was made by some of the "true blue" democracy who were compelled to purchase tickets at $3, or remain at home, and we have heard of several instances where the $1 ticket was surrendered by leading democrats for the sake of peace, and $3 tickets procured in their place.

By the aid of the republicans who make the round trip for $1, the number who left Janesville last night and to-day is about the same as the number who left here for the Seward meeting.

ESCAPE OF WHALEN.—Mr. Plato, the constable who had Whalen in charge when he escaped, informs us that he was not asleep when the prisoner got away from him. He states that Whalen was seated by his side, and that he was attacked with a vertigo to which he is sometimes liable, and leaned his head upon the seat in front of him. While in this condition, which he has no means of telling how long it lasted, Whalen slipped out of the car and made his escape. Whalen was not hand-cuffed, as his hands are so small that the cuffs would slip over them, and Mr. Plato did not consider it necessary to otherwise secure him.

FOUND.—On the 4th inst., a small portmonnaie containing some money. The owner can have the same by calling at the register's office.

FLOUR AND LUMBER.—We learn from Mr. H. E. Pattison, agent for the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, that 4932 barrels of flour were shipped from Janesville over that road during the month of September; and 1,282,500 feet of lumber were received here during the same time. This is a good month's work on two items of freight.

☞ On account of the absence of Rev. Mr. Kinney, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, there will be no preaching in that church next Sabbath.

☞ Badger Base Ball Club will meet for field exercise to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, on their own grounds. A punctual attendance is desired.

By order of the President.

A NEW ROCK DRILL.—Mr. Lucius M. Gilmore of this city has invented, and has just received a patent for a machine for drilling wells in solid rock, which is quite an improvement over the old method, both in respect to the rapidity and ease with which the work is accomplished, and in its cheapness. This invention consists in an improvement in the drill, so that it can be taken apart to be sharpened, and expanded so that the hole is made of a uniform diameter. The apparatus for operating the drill is also new, and is so arranged as to be worked by horse power, greatly lessning the power heretofore used, and increasing the speed; so that one man and a horse can drill nine feet in a day through such rock as is common in this country. The whole apparatus is cheap, simple and not likely to get out of order; and as deep drilling for water in this country is necessary, we regard it as one of the most valuable inventions of the day.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—The trustees of this institution assembled at Madison yesterday. The old officers were re-elected, as follows:

President—M. C. Darling.
Vice President—H. H. Giles.
Secretary—F. S. Lawrence.
Treasurer—Simeon Mills.
Executive Committee—A. I. Bennett, Simeon Mills, Thomas Hood.
Visiting Committee—Geo. D. Wilber, Solomon Blood, C. D. Robinson.
Medical Superintendent—Dr. John P. Clement.
Assistant—Dr. John Favill.
Matron—Mrs. Mary Holliday.

Forty-nine patients—23 males, 26 females—have been admitted to the institution. Of these, four have been discharged for various reasons, leaving 45 as the actual number of patients. Fifteen more patients have been notified, and are expected within two weeks. The building will now accommodate 120 patients.

The institution is now in complete order, and its working thus far is very satisfactory. Its officers are competent and efficient. —Free Democrat.

A SPECULATION.—Some of the original holders of the $1 Douglas meeting tickets made quite a speculation in the sale of their tickets. When the limited number gave out, in consequence of the active sale to republicans, the price went up, and a handsome advance was realized.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

EMANCIPATION SCHEME.—It is stated that there is a grand emancipation scheme now in embry in western Virginia, which will develop itself in the course of the coming winter. The movement is to have for its leader "a distinguished gentleman from eastern Virginia, not regarded as particularly sound on the slavery question for many years past."

Gen. Leslie Combs, the newly elected clerk of the court of appeals of Kentucky, was sworn in on the 12th ult. On the same day he appointed R. R. Bolling, the Douglas candidate for the same office, his deputy.

Austria continues to make warlike preparations, she is fortifying the forts of Venice, augmenting the garrison of that city, and recalling all the military in furlough. Four regiments have been quite recently sent into the famous quadrilateral, 124 guns, chiefly rifled, were on the way to Venice or northern Tyrol, and the Trieste railroad will soon be exclusively devoted, as in 1859, to the transportation of troops and munitions of war.

LEADING NEW YORK MERCHANTS COMING OUT FOR LINCOLN.—The Hon. Moses H. Grinnell and S. B. Chittenden—two of the leading merchants of New York city—addressed republican meetings on Thursday night, held under the auspices of the central club of the commercial metropolis. R. M. Blatchford, esq., another prominent merchant, has been nominated for the assembly by the republicans of New York city.

The Rail Splitter is a rough enough title, but our good German friends call Abraham Lincoln der Reigel-Schplatter.

Gov. Wise, of Virginia, has written a brief letter of twenty-seven pages to disprove the charge that Breckinridge petitioned for the pardon of John Brown.

Several new and serious charges have been preferred against Gen. Harney, by officers Jordan, De Hart, Hodges and Welcher.

J. S. Gaus, a Wall street broker in a small way, has been arrested for an embezzlement of $3,000 in funds entrusted to his keeping.

It is said that a fine lady in Fifth avenue, N. Y., has ordered a dress, to be worn at the Renfrew Ball, which will cost three thousand dollars.

Richard H. Dana, jr., has returned to Boston from his tour round the world.

Cramond Kennedy, the boy preacher, who is called "the Young Spurgeon of America," is to deliver a lecture in Albany on the 9th of October.

The supper at the ball in New York, in honor of the Prince of Wales, will cost, it is said $12,000.

Dean Richmond, of Buffalo, has contributed one hundred dollars to the Lady Elgin relief fund.

Those eighty million of lires which Garibaldi was said to have found in the government treasury at Naples, turns out to have been a slight exaggeration. According to the statement of the Tribune's Turin correspondent, the Liberator has had to send to that city for enough money to pay his troops after entering the Neapolitan capital, instead of finding large sums there provided ready for his use.

Much feeling exists at New Orleans among the admirers of Walker, against the commander of the British war steamer Gladiator, now in port, for his instrumentality in the capture and execution of the chief and for bringing home the remnant of his band. The commander was knocked down, last Saturday, in the bar-room of the St. Charles, by one of the indignant filibuster's backers.

That the Prince of Wales "tore his trowsers," while shooting rabbits at Dwight Station, Ill., is the latest important intelligence telegraphed to the N. Y. Times.

The crops of New Mexico are very short. To add to the discomforts and privations of the inhabitants, an Indian war of extermination on both sides is progressing. It is mournful that war and famine should march hand in hand—one evil would seem sufficient without the other.

It is in vain to hope to please all alike. Let a man stand with his face in what direction he will, he must necessarily turn his back upon half the world.

The New York Herald understands that Edwin Forrest is engaged for three hundred nights, and receives five hundred dollars per night.

☞ Baron Renfrew and his party arrived Harrisburg, Pa., on the 2d. All along their route they were received by large crowds of people.

Chicago Market.

Thursday evening, October 4.

The wheat market opened firm with a fair demand; but under the good supply, it became weaker, and prices receded about ½c from the opening figures—closing, however, with a firmer feeling. About 160,000 bushels changed hands, at 89a90c for northwestern club—principally the latter quotation; 87½89c for No 1 spring, 85a86c for No 2 spring, and 78c for rejected—closing firm at about 89c for No 1 and 86c for No 2 spring. Flour heavy and tendency downward. Barley dull and heavy.

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his 'own hook,' he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than ever. The people will now know where tobacco of all kinds and in all shapes, of the choicest variety, may be found. BENTON'S IS THE PLACE. Give him a call.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Second Ward Republican Caucus.

The republican electors of the second ward of the city of Janesville met at No. 2's engine house, Wednesday evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the senatorial convention, to be held in this city on the 5th inst.

The meeting was called to order by A. C. Bates, esq., on whose motion C. Loftus Martin was chosen president, and S. J. M. Putnam secretary.

Wm. A. Lawrence, Hiram Jackman and George Barnes were then unanimously elected delegates to said convention, with the power of substitution.

C. LOFTS MARTIN, Pres't.
S. J. M. PUTNAM, Sec'y.
Janesville, Oct. 3d, 1860.

THE DOUGLAS CELEBRATION.—Six passenger cars left in the train this morning for the Douglas meeting in Chicago. One was filled with emptiness, and another had a dozen or less occupants, while one was filled with the regular passengers over the road.

The arrangements, so far as the railroad company was concerned, were the same as for the Seward meeting last Tuesday.—Three cars were chartered, by each party, and these were filled at $1 for the round trip. The difference, so far as the passengers were concerned, was, that for the Seward meeting the $1 fare was exhausted by the Wide-Awakes of Janesville, Milton and Monroe; for the Douglas meeting, the $1 tickets were sold indiscriminately, and many republicans availed themselves of the cheap price to visit Chicago on business or for the pleasure of the visit and trip. Indeed, so great was the anxiety and effort to get rid of the cheap tickets, and so many were urged upon and sold to republicans who purchased for the reasons we have stated, that a good deal of complaint was made by some of the "true blue" democracy who were compelled to purchase tickets at $3, or remain at home, and we have heard of several instances where the $1 ticket was surrendered by leading democrats for the sake of peace, and $3 tickets procured in their place.

By the aid of the republicans who make the round trip for $1, the number who left Janesville last night and to day is about the same as the number who left here for the Seward meeting.

ESCAPE OF WHALEN.—Mr. Plato, the constable who had Whalen in charge when he escaped, informs us that he was not asleep when the prisoner got away from him. He states that Whalen was seated by his side, and that he was attacked with a vertigo to which he is sometimes liable, and leaned his head upon the seat in front of him. While in this condition, which he has no means of telling how long it lasted, Whalen slipped out of the car and made his escape. Whalen was not hand-cuffed, as his hands are so small that the cuffs would slip over them, and Mr. Plato did not consider it necessary to otherwise secure him.

FOUND.—On the 4th inst., a small portmonnaie containing some money. The owner can have the same by calling at the register's office.

FLOUR AND LUMBER.—We learn from Mr. H. E. Pattison, agent for the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, that 4832 barrels of flour were shipped from Janesville over that road during the month of September; and 1,282,500 feet of lumber were received here during the same time. This is a good month's work on two items of freight.

☞ On account of the absence of Rev. Mr. Kinney, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, there will be no preaching in that church next Sabbath.

☞ Badger Base Ball Club will meet for field exercise to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, on their own grounds. A punctual attendance is desired.

By order of the President.

A NEW ROCK DRILL.—Mr. Lucius M. Gilmore of this city has invented, and has just received a patent for a machine for drilling wells in solid rock, which is quite an improvement over the old method, both in respect to the rapidity and ease with which the work is accomplished, and in its cheapness. This invention consists in an improvement in the drill, so that it can be taken apart to be sharpened, and expanded so that the hole is made of a uniform diameter. The apparatus for operating the drill is also new, and is so arranged as to be worked by horse power, greatly lessning the power heretofore used, and increasing the speed; so that one man and a horse can drill nine feet in a day through such rock as is common in this country. The whole apparatus is cheap, simple and not likely to get out of order; and as deep drilling for water in this country is necessary, we regard it as one of the most valuable inventions of the day.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—The trustees of this institution assembled at Madison yesterday. The old officers were re-elected, as follows:

President—M. C. Darling.
Vice President—H. H. Giles.
Secretary—F. S. Lawrence.
Treasurer—Simeon Mills.
Executive Committee—A. I. Bennett, Simeon Mills, Thomas Hood.
Visiting Committee—Geo. D. Wilber, Solomon Blood, C. D. Robinson.
Medical Superintendent—Dr. John P. Clement.
Assistant—Dr. John Favill.
Matron—Mrs. Mary Holliday.

Forty-nine patients—23 males, 26 females—have been admitted to the institution. Of these, four have been discharged for various reasons, leaving 45 as the actual number of patients. Fifteen more patients have been notified, and are expected within two weeks. The building will now accommodate 120 patients.

The institution is now in complete order, and its working thus far is very satisfactory. Its officers are competent and efficient. —Free Democrat.

A SPECULATION.—Some of the original holders of the $1 Douglas meeting tickets made quite a speculation in the sale of their tickets. When the limited number gave out, in consequence of the active sale to republicans, the price went up, and a handsome advance was realized.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

EMANCIPATION SCHEME.—It is stated that there is a grand emancipation scheme now in embry in western Virginia, which will develop itself in the course of the coming winter. The movement is to have for its leader "a distinguished gentleman from eastern Virginia, not regarded as particularly sound on the slavery question for many years past."

Gen. Leslie Combs, the newly elected clerk of the court of appeals of Kentucky, was sworn in on the 12th ult. On the same day he appointed R. R. Bolling, the Douglas candidate for the same office, his deputy.

Austria continues to make warlike preparations, she is fortifying the forts of Venice, augmenting the garrison of that city, and recalling all the military in furlough. Four regiments have been quite recently sent into the famous quadrilateral, 124 guns, chiefly rifled, were on the way to Venice or northern Tyrol, and the Trieste railroad will soon be exclusively devoted, as in 1859, to the transportation of troops and munitions of war.

LEADING NEW YORK MERCHANTS COMING OUT FOR LINCOLN.—The Hon. Moses H. Grinnell and S. B. Chittenden—two of the leading merchants of New York city—addressed republican meetings on Thursday night, held under the auspices of the central club of the commercial metropolis. R. M. Blatchford, esq., another prominent merchant, has been nominated for the assembly by the republicans of New York city.

The Rail Splitter is a rough enough title, but our good German friends call Abraham Lincoln der Reigel-Schplatter.

Gov. Wise, of Virginia, has written a brief letter of twenty-seven pages to disprove the charge that Breckinridge petitioned for the pardon of John Brown.

Several new and serious charges have been preferred against Gen. Harney, by officers Jordan, De Hart, Hodges and Welcher.

J. S. Gaus, a Wall street broker in a small way, has been arrested for an embezzlement of $3,000 in funds entrusted to his keeping.

It is said that a fine lady in Fifth avenue, N. Y., has ordered a dress, to be worn at the Renfrew Ball, which will cost three thousand dollars.

Richard H. Dana, jr., has returned to Boston from his tour round the world.

Cramond Kennedy, the boy preacher, who is called "the Young Spurgeon of America," is to deliver a lecture in Albany on the 9th of October.

The supper at the ball in New York, in honor of the Prince of Wales, will cost, it is said $12,000.

Dean Richmond, of Buffalo, has contributed one hundred dollars to the Lady Elgin relief fund.

Those eighty million of lires which Garibaldi was said to have found in the government treasury at Naples, turns out to have been a slight exaggeration. According to the statement of the Tribune's Turin correspondent, the Liberator has had to send to that city for enough money to pay his troops after entering the Neapolitan capital, instead of finding large sums there provided ready for his use.

Much feeling exists at New Orleans among the admirers of Walker, against the commander of the British war steamer Gladiator, now in port, for his instrumentality in the capture and execution of the chief and for bringing home the remnant of his band. The commander was knocked down, last Saturday, in the bar-room of the St. Charles, by one of the indignant filibuster's backers.

That the Prince of Wales "tore his trowsers," while shooting rabbits at Dwight Station, Ill., is the latest important intelligence telegraphed to the N. Y. Times.

The crops of New Mexico are very short. To add to the discomforts and privations of the inhabitants, an Indian war of extermination on both sides is progressing. It is mournful that war and famine should march hand in hand—one evil would seem sufficient without the other.

It is in vain to hope to please all alike. Let a man stand with his face in what direction he will, he must necessarily turn his back upon half the world.

The New York Herald understands that Edwin Forrest is engaged for three hundred nights, and receives five hundred dollars per night.

☞ Baron Renfrew and his party arrived Harrisburg, Pa., on the 2d. All along their route they were received by large crowds of people.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, October 5, 1860.

The wheat market was very firm to-day at about 1c advance on yesterday's quotations. Sales of 3000 bushels at a range of 81@83c, the latter figure was paid for a load of very choice Rio Grande; except that, 85c was an outside price. Coarse grains remain at about previous quotations.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 85a90c; good to choice milling spring 83a85; common to fair shipping 81a83.

CORN—old shelled at 30a33c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

OATS—good local and some shipping demand at 16a 18c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 37½a42c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—wanted at 60a65c per 50 lbs, for choice lots, and 35a45c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—in good supply at 12½a16c for good to choice roll.

EGGS—in good demand at 8c per dozen

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,60, per 100 lbs

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7a8; chickens, 6a7; live chickens 12½c each.

WOOL—ranges at 25a30c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Thursday evening, October 4.

The wheat market opened firm with a fair demand; but under the good supply, it became weaker, and prices receded about ½c from the opening figures—closing, however, with a firmer feeling. About 140,000 bushels changed hands, at 89a90c for northwestern club—principally the latter quotation; 87½a89c for No 1 spring, 85a86c for No 2 spring, and 78c for rejected—closing firm at about 88c for No 1 and 84c for No 2 spring. Flour heavy and tendency downward. Barley dull and heavy.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Nomination of Senator.

The senatorial convention to-day nominated A. E. FOOTE, of the town of Center, on the 9th formal ballot. This ballot stood, A. E. Foot 24, J. J. R. Pease 19, W. H. Tripp 1, C. R. Gibbs 1, Z. P. Burdick 1.

Mr. Foot has been a representative in the assembly, and was a member of the second constitutional convention. He has occupied other public stations, and in all of them has discharged his duties faithfully and acceptably to the people. As a member of the senate, he will prove an intelligent legislator and a true republican in all matters affecting the the politial interests of the party. His election is a matter of course, and by a majority worthy of the 17th district, of which he has long been a prominent and honored resident.

☞The extract from Schurz's Springfield speech, which has been maliciously wrested from its context, so as to make it appear that Schurz defamed the memory of the fathers and uttered moral treason to the great doctrine of the equality of the rights of man, is having an extensive run among the lower strata of democratic newspapers. Now, the use which is made of that extract is far worse and more despicable than an outright forgery, and it is not at all surprising that some of the mendacious scoundrels who are guilty of it, should be brought to an account for it. Such a circumstance happened at Carlisle, Pa., the other day, when Schurz was making a speech. A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

A democratic editor, by the name of Bratton, and postmaster at Carlisle, had reproduced this garbled extract. Mr. Schurz read from his speech the whole passage in which it occurs, and showed what a glaring perversion of his true meaning had been put upon it by Mr. Bratton, and mentioned that Bratton had called upon him and apologized for the criticism he had made upon it. Bratton, who chanced to be among the audience, exclaimed with the utmost violence of manner, that he had not apologized. Carl Schurz replied coolly that "a gentleman knowing the truth would have apologized, and that he perceived clearly Mr. Bratton could not be classed in that category. The reproduction of this distorted text after his explanation of it, was a most villainous slander." Bratton grew more and more excited, and the young men from half a dozen parts of the house rushed towards him with the utmost fierceness and amid loud cries. Only the entreaties of the speaker and the warm intervention of the officers of the meating prevented him from being severely beaten.

The "Dry Goods Arrangement" in New York.

The present political campaign presents a new and singular state of things. It is the first time in the history of politics in this country that three parties, distinct from each other in sentiment, unite in forming an electoral ticket. We allude to what is called fusion in New York. The presidential canvass is now within five weeks of its termination, and it has been ascertained that the republican party is stronger in that state than either of the other parties—hence there is an absolute necessity of a union of the discordant elements of the opposition, or a withdrawal of all effort against the republican ticket. The leaders of the opposition parties have conceived the plan of getting up an electoral ticket which is to be composed of 18 Douglas men, 10 Bell and Everett men, and 7 Breckinridge men. This is supposed to represent the capital which each party can bring into the business firm, or "dry goods arrangement," as it is not inaptly called in New York. This ticket has been published in the democratic papers of New York. It is a singular looking affair—the names of the Douglas men are in Roman type, the Bell and Everett men in Italics, and the Breckinridge men in SMALL CAPS. That is the way the printer has arranged them, so that the voters of each party shall know their men. This scheme is not quite agreed upon yet, as the Douglasites have to get rid of some of their electors who have heretofore been nominated. Reuben H. Walworth, for elector at large, does not retire with that readiness which was expected; and the Breckinridge candidate for Governor, James T. Brady, persists in denouncing the arrangement.—Still, the "old heads" of the democratic party have hopes that all will come into the plan, at last, since it is the only method which affords to them the least hope of beating Lincoln in New York. The republicans look upon it with derision and contempt, and are heartily glad that their opponents are all to be put into one boat, where they can sink the whole of them together.

It must be evident to all that men who can conceive of such a plan to carry out an electioneering plot, have lost all political principle. Their only object is to beat their opponents, without any expectation of advancing a political idea. When a man deposits this fusion ticket in the ballot box he votes for popular sovereignty, (Douglas); for intervention in favor of slavery, and not getting this, for secession, (Breckinridge); for know nothingism and a slave code, (Bell and Everett). This will be a pretty heavy dose for some of the political stomachs in the rural districts of New York, and must disgust all right thinking men throughout the country; for if successful, the only effect it can have will be to take the election out of the hands of the people and throw it into congress, where Lane is sure to be elected.

A RETRACTION.—We are glad to find one democratic paper with self respect enough to do something like justice to Mr. Schurz. The Cleveland Democrat (Breckinridge) says that some days since it published the extract from that gentleman's Springfield speech, which has become so famous. "It seems," says that paper, "that Schurz was commenting upon a speech of Mr. Douglas, and gave what he claimed was a fair deduction from the little Squatter's speech, comprised in the obnoxious sentiments which, clipped from their context, and without a word of explanation, makes Schurz the utterer of sentiments as his own. The facts being, in brief, as we state them, Schurz is entitled to the correction from all who published the extract, which we did, believing it at the moment genuine. The fellow who first cut it out and published it, did a contemptible act, in comparison to which the robbing of a henroost is virtue, for want might be plead as an excuse for the latter, while for the other no excuse can be offered."

ONE STEP LOWER!—The Democrat of this morning republishes its list of extracts from prominent republicans, including its previous forgeries, and appends the extract from Carl Schurz at Springfield in relation to the declaration of independence as the sentiments of Mr. Schurz. This kind of work seems so congenial to the taste of the Democrat that it is impossible to forego its love for it.

THE DOUGLAS RECEPTION AT CHICAGO.—The Press and Tribune of to-day says that only ninety-three persons went out to Michigan City to meet Douglas, yesterday, instead of the five hundred who were expected to go. Douglas was received at Chicago about eight o'clock last evening.—By employing extraordinary methods, the democracy were able to get out on this occasion, 2421, (actual count) horse and foot, men and boys, music and officers included. Two hundred and eighty-eight draymen were mounted on their horses.

The regular organized and drilled "Ever-Readies," corresponding to our Wide-Awakes, did not exceed 400, including two small companies from Aurora and Batavia. All the rest of the torch-bearers were pressed into the service for the occasion.

As this is a pleasant day we hope the Douglas demonstration will turn out better than the slim affair of last night would seem to warrant.

The Times and Herald says it has no heart to compare the reception of Douglas and Seward, "so sublime was the display presented"!

MARRIAGE RETURNS IN NEW YORK.—There is a slight increase in the number of marriage returns for the month of August, thus far handed in to the office of the register of records, Dr. Ramsay. The Roman Catholic priests, however, following the example of Archbishop Hughes, continue to withhold their reports, thus denying the authority of the state in the matter. No step has yet been taken towards the prosecution for penalties, of any of the offending parties. Let the law be enforced, we say, without distinction of sect.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

continent; how every good and virtuous plant lives and breathes by its support.—We see the magical fertility which results from its presence, because it is around us and before us.

We sometimes, fellow citizens, hear an argument for a former proposition made in this form: One offers to "take a thing to be done by the job." Let us imagine for a moment that there could be one man bold enough, great enough, and wise enough to take "by the job" the work of establishing civilization over this broad continent of North America. He would, of course, want to do it in the shortest time, at the cheapest expense, and in the best manner. Now would such a man ever dream of importing African barbarians; or of taking their children or descendants in this country to build up and people great free states all over this land, from the Allegheny Mountains to the Pacific ocean? Would he not, on the contrary, accept, as the rightful, natural, healthful and best possible agency which he could select, the free labor of free men, the minds, the thoughts, the wills, the purposes, the ambitions of enlightened free men, such as we claim ourselves to be; would he not receive all who claimed to aid in such services as these, whether they were born on this soil, or were cradled in foreign lands?

I care not, fellow citizens, what reckless men may say in the heat of debate, or under the influence of interest, passion or prejudice; it is a matter of indifference whether slavery shall pervade the whole land or a part of the land, and freedom the residue—that freedom and slavery may take their chances—who "don't care whether slavery voted up or voted down." There is no man who has an enlightened conscience who is indifferent on the subject of human bondage. [Applause.] There is no man who is enlightened and honest, who would not abate some considerable part of all his worldly wealth, if he could thereby convert this land from a land cursed in whole or in part with slavery, into a land of equal and impartial liberty; [cheers] and I will tell you how I know this: I know it, because every man demands freedom for himself, and refuses to be a slave. No free man, who is a man, would consent to be a slave; no slave who has any manhood in him, does not desire to be free; no man who has unperverted reason does not lament, condemn and deplore the idea of commerce in man; the executioner is always odious, even though his task is necessary to the administration of justice. But we turn with horror and disgust from him who wields the axe. So the slave slave holder turns with disgust from the auctioneer who sells the men and women whom he has reared and held in slavery, although he receives the profits of the sale into his own coffers.

I know this national idea of ours is just and right for another reason; it is that in the whole history of society, human nature has never, never honored one man who reduced another man to bondage. The world is full of monuments in honor of men who have delivered their fellow men from slavery.

Since this idea is self-evidently just, and is of itself pure, peaceable, easy to be entreated and full of good works, will you tell me why it is that it has not been accepted by the common people? Alas! that it should be so. Perhaps I can throw light on that by asking another question: Is not Christianity pure, peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, and full of good works? and yet is not the church of Jesus Christ still a church militant? Alas! that it should be so. Christianity explains for herself how it is that she is rejected of men. She says it is because men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil. I shall not say this in regard to the subject of freedom. I know better; I know that my countrymen love light—not darkness. They are even in the state and disposition of the Roman Governor, "almost thou persuadest me to be a christian," and almost the American people are persuaded to be republican. [Cheers and laughter.] Why, then, are they not altogether persuaded? The answer cannot be given without some reflection. It involves an examination of our national conduct and life.

The reason why the country is only almost and not altogether persuaded to be republican, is because the national sense is perverted—the national sense and judgment has been perverted. We inherited slavery; it is organized into our national life—into our forms of government. It exists among us, unsuspected in its evils, because we have become accustomed, out of national habit, to enduring and tolerating slavery. The effect of this habit arising from the presence of slavery, is to produce a want of moral courage among the people and an indisposition to entertain and examine the subject. It is not, however, the fault of the people. This lack of moral courage is chiefly the fault of the political representatives of the people. In every district in the United States, and for every seat in congress, the people might select men apparently as brave, as truthful, as fearless and as firm as Owen Lovejoy. [Applause.]

You may fill the halls of Congress with men from all the free states who seem to be as reliable as Owen Lovejoy; but on the clangor of the slavery bugle in the hall they begin to waver and fail. They retire. They suffer themselves to be demoralized; and they return to demoralize the people. Slavery never hesitates to raise the clangor of the trumpets to terrify the timid.

Slavery has, too, another argument for the timid than terror; it is power. The concentration of slavery gives it a fearful political power. You know how long it has been the controlling power in the executive departments of the government. Slavery uses that power, as might be expected—to punish those who oppose it, to reward those who serve it. All representatives are naturally ambitious; all representatives like fame; if they do not like pecuniary rewards they like the distinctions of place. They like to be popular. When the people are demoralized he who is constant becomes offensive and obnoxious; he loses position and the party chooses some other representative who will be less obnoxious. These demoralizd representatives inculcate among the people promiscuous lessons and sustain themselves by adopting compromises. They compromise so far, if possible, as to save place and a show of principle, they save themselves first and let freedom take what remains.

A community thus demoralized by its representatives is fearful of considering the subject of slavery at all. It does not like to look back upon its record; it does not dare to look forward to see what are to be the consequences of errors. It desires peace and quiet. We shall see in a moment what fearful sacrifices have been made under the influence of this demoralization of the power of the government.

The first act of demoralization was to surrender the Territory of Arkansas and the Territory of Missouri to slavery, and also by implication all the rest of the Territory of Louisiana acquired by purchase from France, that lay south of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes north latitude.—Take up your maps when you go home, and see what a broad belt of country, lying south of that line was surrendered, with the states of Missouri and Arkansas, to slavery. Next, under the influence of this same demoralization, the whole of the peninsula of Florida, acquired from Spain, was surrendered to slavery, rendering it practically useless for all the national purposes for which it was acquired, making it a burthen instead of a national safeguard in the Gulf of Mexico.

But Texas was surrendered to slavery, and brought in with the gratuitous agreement that four slave states should be made out of that Territory. Next, in 1850, Utah and New Mexico were abandoned to slavery. After these events, following in quick succession, came the abrogation, in the year 1854, of the restriction contained in the Missouri Compromise, by which it had been stipulated that all north of 36 deg. 30 min., excepting the state of Missouri, should be dedicated to freedom. That was abandoned to slavery to take it if she could get it; and the administration of the government of the United States, with scarcely a protest from the people, went on to favor its occupancy by slavery. As a legitimate consequence came the refusal, on the part of the national government—for it was a practical refusal, or neglect—to admit Kansas into the Union because she would not accept slavery.

After this demoralization had been carried out in these practical measures; what right had the nation to be surprised when the President and the Supreme Court at last pronounced that, which in no previous year, either of them would have dared to assert—that this constitution of ours is not a constitution of liberty, but that it is a constitution of human bondage; that slavery is the normal condition of the American people on each acre of the domain of the United States not organized into states—that is to say, that wherever this banner of ours, this star-spangled banner, whose glories we celebrate so highly—wherever that banner floats over a national ship or a national territory, there is a laud not of freedom, but of slavery!

Hence, it has followed, that the nation up to 1854 surrendered all the unoccupied portions of this continent to slavery, and thereby practically excluded freemen—because experience all shows that when you have made a slave territory, freedom avoids it; just as much as when you make a free state, like Kansas, slavery disappears from it.

I have said that the country was demoralized by its political representatives; but these political representatives have their agents. All men necessarily fall into some political party, and into some religious sect. Ambition sways in both political parties and religious sects. To gain office in a political party and share its favor, when the nation was demoralized, it became necessary that the candidate should be tolerant of slavery. So religious sects were ambitions to extend their ecclesiastical sway. The consequence was that year by year slavery had party upon party; slavery had religious sect upon religious sect; church after church. But alas! until the dawn of the year, freedom had no part and no religious sect throughout this whole country.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

The steamship city of Baltimore, from Liverpool on Wednesday, 26th ult., via Queenstown 27th, passed this point at three o'clock this afternoon.

The cardinals continued to advance in the Papal states. The fortress of Saute Leo had surrendered after some hours firing, and was occupied by the Sardinians.—Ancona was bombarded nine hours by Sardinian vessels without much effect. The reply was vigorous.

Later dispatches say the cannonade by land and sea continued, but at intervals.—The Sardinians occupied the fortress of Cartellan.

The official Roman journal contains Cardinal Antonelli's note claiming the assistance of the catholic powers.

Garibaldi had concentrated his troops on the hights of Voltumo preparatory to attacking the Neapolitans. The Garibaldians had met with some reverses near Capua.

Garibaldi, in a fresh proclamation, says that he will join the Sapdinian troops at Rome, and begin a march against Venice.

The King of Naples had published a decree, at Gaeta, ordering a state of siege in all the provinces where a revolutionary struggle exists, and cashiering all officers of the Marine as guilty of high treason except those of one vessel, which went to Gaeta. The republican cause was gaining ground in Naples and influence over Garibaldi.

It was reported that Victor Hugo had arrived at Naples.

The state agricultural fair opened at Sacramento on the 20th, under very favorable auspices. The largest receipts on a single day exceeded $4,000. The best feature of the fair is said to be the display of blooded stock, requiring four hundred and fifty stalls for their accommodation.

There is nothing later concerning the Oregon senatorial election. It is said to be the intention to elect Baker and Nesmith, whether a quorum can be got up in the senate or not. As the senate organized and elected its sergeant-at-arms without a quorum, it is doubtful if that officer has power to arrest absent senators.

The Wilson G. Hunt brought down about fifteen thousand dollars, in dust. The miners on Rock Creek are making good wages.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 3d.

The murderers of the two persons whose bodies were found on the mountain road between this place and Van Buren on the 31st, were brought here last night. This morning a large crowd collected and insisted upon hanging them at once, but by the repeated efforts of the most influential citizens, the crowd was finally prevailed upon to allow the man's capturers to take him back to the county in which he committed the deed. It is thought that he will be hung to-day or to-morrow. His wife is in custody as an accessory to the deud.

PRINCE OF WALES AT WASHINGTON.—Baron Renfrew arrived at 4 o'clock on Wednesday by a special train. There was about 1000 spectators at the station, evincing intense anxiety to obtain a view of his person, and in this they were gratified.—They greeted his appearance with cheers. Immediately on the arrival of the train, Gen. Cass was introduced to Lord Renfrew by Lord Lyons, when the former said he had the pleasure of welcoming his lordship to Washington in the name of the president, and with his lordship's permission, he would accompany him to the executive mansion.

Lord Renfrew rode thither in company with Gen. Cass, Lord Lyons and the Duke of Newcastle. Upon arriving at the mansion, where the president was in waiting to receive him, he was presented to him by Gen. Cass, and received a cordial welcome. Lord Lyons then performed the ceremony of introducing the suite.

As these proceedings were private, the gates of the president's grounds were closed against intrusion, and attended by police officers.

It is a noticeable fact that Gen. Cass, who, under the theory of the British constitution, was born a British subject, his nativity being before the treaty of peace, received the prince in the name of the president. Besides, he was present at the coronation of the prince's mother.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stiring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,
Proprietor of the
Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,
adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the Petty Slop Shops
in the land. From the fact that the Original
Young America Clothing House
has held for the last EIGHT YEARS
the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the Cheapest Establishment
of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the Oldest Clothing House in the City
feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the overlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.
The People of Rock County
are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce
A BOGUS LAW
upon them, to get them to purchase their
Fall and Winter Clothing
from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the Largest and Best Stock of Clothing
of all kinds, including the finest
CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,
and the best variety of ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,
of every description, with
Pants and Vests
to match, as well as any quantity of
Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,
and every article of
Wearing Apparrel
that man can want.
If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the Original Young America Clothing House
does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of Hats and Caps
down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words
"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"
meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.
His Merchant Tailoring Department
is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,
MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,
who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want
CHEAP CLOTHING,

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Second Ward Republican Caucus.

The republican electors of the second ward of the city of Janesville met at No. 2's engine house, Wednesday evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the senatorial convention, to be held in this city on the 5th inst.

The meeting was called to order by A. C. Bates, esq., on whose motion C. Loftus Martin was chosen president, and S. J. M. Putnam secretary.

Wm. A. Lawrence, Hiram Jackman and George Barnes were then unanimously elected delegates to said convention, with the power of substitution.

C. LOFTS MARTIN, Pres't.
S. J. M. PUTNAM, Sec'y.
Janesville, Oct. 3d, 1860.

THE DOUGLAS CELEBRATION.—Six passenger cars left in the train this morning for the Douglas meeting in Chicago. One was filled with emptiness, and another had a dozen or less occupants, while one was filled with the regular passengers over the road.

The arrangements, so far as the railroad company was concerned, were the same as for the Seward meeting last Tuesday.—Three cars were chartered, by each party, and these were filled at $1 for the round trip. The difference, so far as the passengers were concerned, was, that for the Seward meeting the $1 fare was exhausted by the Wide-Awakes of Janesville, Milton and Monroe; for the Douglas meeting, the $1 tickets were sold indiscriminately, and many republicans availed themselves of the cheap price to visit Chicago on business or for the pleasure of the visit and trip. Indeed, so great was the anxiety and effort to get rid of the cheap tickets, and so many were urged upon and sold to republicans who purchased for the reasons we have stated, that a good deal of complaint was made by some of the "true blue" democracy who were compelled to purchase tickets at $3, or remain at home, and we have heard of several instances where the $1 ticket was surrendered by leading democrats for the sake of peace, and $3 tickets procured in their place.

By the aid of the republicans who make the round trip for $1, the number who left Janesville last night and to-day is about the same as the number who left here for the Seward meeting.

ESCAPE OF WHALEN.—Mr. Plato, the constable who had Whalen in charge when he escaped, informs us that he was not asleep when the prisoner got away from him. He states that Whalen was seated by his side, and that he was attacked with a vertigo to which he is sometimes liable, and leaned his head upon the seat in front of him. While in this condition, which he has no means of telling how long it lasted, Whalen slipped out of the car and made his escape. Whalen was not hand-cuffed, as his hands are so small that the cuffs would slip over them, and Mr. Plato did not consider it necessary to otherwise secure him.

FOUND.—On the 4th inst., a small portmonnaie containing some money. The owner can have the same by calling at the register's office.

FLOUR AND LUMBER.—We learn from Mr. H. E. Pattison, agent for the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, that 4832 barrels of flour were shipped from Janesville over that road during the month of September; and 1,282,500 feet of lumber were received here during the same time. This is a good month's work on two items of freight.

☞ On account of the absence of Rev. Mr. Kinney, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, there will be no preaching in that church next Sabbath.

☞ Badger Base Ball Club will meet for field exercise to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, on their own grounds. A punctual attendance is desired.

By order of the President.

A NEW ROCK DRILL.—Mr. Lucius M. Gilmore of this city has invented, and has just received a patent for a machine for drilling wells in solid rock, which is quite an improvement over the old method, both in respect to the rapidity and ease with which the work is accomplished, and in its cheapness. This invention consists in an improvement in the drill, so that it can be taken apart to be sharpened, and expanded so that the hole is made of a uniform diameter. The apparatus for operating the drill is also new, and is so arranged as to be worked by horse power, greatly lessning the power heretofore used, and increasing the speed; so that one man and a horse can drill nine feet in a day through such rock as is common in this country. The whole apparatus is cheap, simple and not likely to get out of order; and as deep drilling for water in this country is necessary, we regard it as one of the most valuable inventions of the day.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—The trustees of this institution assembled at Madison yesterday. The old officers were re-elected, as follows:

President—M. C. Darling.
Vice President—H. H. Giles.
Secretary—F. S. Lawrence.
Treasurer—Simeon Mills.
Executive Committee—A. I. Bennett, Simeon Mills, Thomas Hood.
Visiting Committee—Geo. D. Wilber, Solomon Blood, C. D. Robinson.
Medical Superintendent—Dr. John P. Clement.
Assistant—Dr. John Favill.
Matron—Mrs. Mary Holliday.

Forty-nine patients—23 males, 26 females—have been admitted to the institution. Of these, four have been discharged for various reasons, leaving 45 as the actual number of patients. Fifteen more patients have been notified, and are expected within two weeks. The building will now accommodate 120 patients.

The institution is now in complete order, and its working thus far is very satisfactory. Its officers are competent and efficient. —Free Democrat.

A SPECULATION.—Some of the original holders of the $1 Douglas meeting tickets made quite a speculation in the sale of their tickets. When the limited number gave out, in consequence of the active sale to republicans, the price went up, and a handsome advance was realized.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

EMANCIPATION SCHEME.—It is stated that there is a grand emancipation scheme now in embry in western Virginia, which will develop itself in the course of the coming winter. The movement is to have for its leader "a distinguished gentleman from eastern Virginia, not regarded as particularly sound on the slavery question for many years past."

Gen. Leslie Combs, the newly elected clerk of the court of appeals of Kentucky, was sworn in on the 12th ult. On the same day he appointed R. R. Bolling, the Douglas candidate for the same office, his deputy.

Austria continues to make warlike preparations, she is fortifying the forts of Venice, augmenting the garrison of that city, and recalling all the military in furlough. Four regiments have been quite recently sent into the famous quadrilateral, 124 guns, chiefly rifled, were on the way to Venice or northern Tyrol, and the Trieste railroad will soon be exclusively devoted, as in 1859, to the transportation of troops and munitions of war.

LEADING NEW YORK MERCHANTS COMING OUT FOR LINCOLN.—The Hon. Moses H. Grinnell and S. B. Chittenden—two of the leading merchants of New York city—addressed republican meetings on Thursday night, held under the auspices of the central club of the commercial metropolis. R. M. Blatchford, esq., another prominent merchant, has been nominated for the assembly by the republicans of New York city.

The Rail Splitter is a rough enough title, but our good German friends call Abraham Lincoln der Reigel-Schplatter.

Gov. Wise, of Virginia, has written a brief letter of twenty-seven pages to disprove the charge that Breckinridge petitioned for the pardon of John Brown.

Several new and serious charges have been preferred against Gen. Harney, by officers Jordan, De Hart, Hodges and Welcher.

J. S. Gans, a Wall street broker in a small way, has been arrested for an embezzlement of $3,000 in funds entrusted to his keeping.

It is said that a fine lady in Fifth avenue, N. Y., has ordered a dress, to be worn at the Renfrew Ball, which will cost three thousand dollars.

Richard H. Dana, jr., has returned to Boston from his tour round the world.

Cramond Kennedy, the boy preacher, who is called "the Young Spurgeon of America," is to deliver a lecture in Albany on the 9th of October.

The supper at the ball in New York, in honor of the Prince of Wales, will cost, it is said $12,000.

Dean Richmond, of Buffalo, has contributed one hundred dollars to the Lady Elgin relief fund.

Those eighty million of lires which Garibaldi was said to have found in the government treasury at Naples, turns out to have been a slight exaggeration. According to the statement of the Tribune's Turin correspondent, the Liberator has had to send to that city for enough money to pay his troops after entering the Neapolitan capital, instead of finding large sums there provided ready for his use.

Much feeling exists at New Orleans among the admirers of Walker, against the commander of the British war steamer Gladiator, now in port, for his instrumentality in the capture and execution of the chief and for bringing home the remnant of his band. The commander was knocked down, last Saturday, in the bar-room of the St. Charles, by one of the indignant filibuster's backers.

That the Prince of Wales "tore his trowsers," while shooting rabbits at Dwight Station, Ill., is the latest important intelligence telegraphed to the N. Y. Times.

The crops of New Mexico are very short. To add to the discomforts and privations of the inhabitants, an Indian war of extermination on both sides is progressing. It is mournful that war and famine should march hand in hand—one evil would seem sufficient without the other.

It is in vain to hope to please all alike. Let a man stand with his face in what direction he will, he must necessarily turn his back upon half the world.

The New York Herald understands that Edwin Forrest is engaged for three hundred nights, and receives five hundred dollars per night.

☞ Baron Renfrew and his party arrived Harrisburg, Pa., on the 2d. All along their route they were received by large crowds of people.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 5, 1860.

The wheat market was very firm to-day at about 1c advance on yesterday's quotations. Sales of 3000 bushels at a range of 81@86c, the latter figure was paid for a load of very choice Rio Grande; except that, 85c was an outside price. Coarse grains remain at about previous quotations.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 85a90c; good to choice milling spring 83a85; common to fair shipping 81a83.

CORN—old shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

OATS—good local and some shipping demand at 16a18c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 37½a42c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—wanted at 50a56c per 50 lbs., for choice lots, and 35a45c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—in good supply at 12½a15c for good to choice roll.

EGGS—in good demand at 8c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7a8; [chickens, 6a7; live chickens 12½c each.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Thursday evening, October 4, 3

The wheat market opened firm with a fair demand; but under the good supply, it became weaker, and prices receded about ½c from the opening figures—closing, however, with a firmer feeling. About 160,000 bushels changed hands, at 89a90c for northwestern club—principally the latter quotation; 87½89c for No 1 spring, 85a86c for No 2 spring, and 78c for rejected—closing firm at about 83c for No 1 and 86c for No 2 spring. Flour heavy and tendency downward. Barley dull and heavy.
